(a) Confidential Information. Except as expressly permitted under this Agreement, or as otherwise permitted in writing by the Disclosing Party, neither the Receiving Party, any Affiliate of the Receiving Party or any officer, director, manager, employee or agent of either the Receiving Party or any Affiliate of the Receiving Party (the "Related Parties") will (a) disclose to any person all or any part of any Confidential Information, (b) act unreasonably or fail to act reasonably so as to impair the confidential or proprietary nature of any Confidential Information, or (c) use all or, any part of any Confidential Information for any purpose whatsoever other than performing the Receiving Party's rights and obligations under this Agreement. The Receiving Party will be responsible to the Disclosing Party for any breach by a Related Party of its obligations under this Section 5(a).

The Confidential Information may be given to and used by Related Parties solely for performing the Receiving Party's rights and obligations under this Agreement. The Receiving Party will take all such actions as are reasonably necessary to ensure that each Related Party having access to any Confidential Information does not disclose, use, act or fail to act as required by this Article 5, and Receiving Party will be liable to the Disclosing Party for any breach of these obligations by the Related Parties.

The Receiving Party shall use reasonable care, at least as protective as the efforts it uses for its own Confidential Information of a similar nature, to safeguard the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information from use or disclosure other than as permitted hereby.

Each Party hereby retains its entire right, title and interest, including all intellectual property rights, in and to all of its Confidential Information. Any disclosure of such Confidential Information under this Agreement shall not be construed as an assignment, grant, option, license or other transfer of any such right, title or interest whatsoever to the Receiving Party or any of its Related Parties.

(b) Limitations on Application of Confidentiality Obligations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, "Confidential Information" will not mean information that (i) is in the public domain at the time of its disclosure to the Receiving Party, (ii) goes into the public domain after disclosure to the Receiving Party through no breach of any obligation of confidentiality to the Disclosing Party or any third person by the Receiving Party or any Related Party, (iii) is disclosed to the Receiving Party by a third party who is under no obligation of confidentiality to the Disclosing Party, (iv) is already known to the Receiving Party at the time of disclosure to the Receiving Party as evidenced by written documentation, (v) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without using Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party as evidenced by written documentation, or (vi) is required to be disclosed by the Receiving Party pursuant to applicable federal, state or local law, regulation or a valid order issued by a court or governmental agency of competent jurisdiction (a "Legal Order"); provided, however, that prior to making any disclosure pursuant to a Legal Order, Receiving Party shall (unless legally prohibited) provide Disclosing Party with (i) prompt written notice of such requirement so that Disclosing Party may seek, at its sole cost and expense, a protective order or other remedy and (ii) reasonable assistance, at Disclosing Party's sole cost and expense, in opposing such disclosure or seeking a protective order or other limitations on disclosure. If, after providing such notice and assistance, Receiving Party remains subject to a Legal Order to disclose any Confidential Information, Receiving Party shall disclose no more than that portion of the Confidential Information which, on the advice of Receiving Party's legal counsel, such Legal Order specifically requires Receiving Party to disclose and, upon Disclosing Party's request, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain assurances from the applicable court or agency that such Confidential Information will be afforded confidential treatment. A Party disclosing Intellectual Property pursuant to this Section 5 will remain the exclusive owner of such Intellectual Property and the disclosure will not be considered a license with respect to such disclosed Intellectual Property.

(c) Methods of Disclosure. Confidential Information disclosed under Section 5, will be disclosed by each Party to the other Party in any and all ways reasonably acceptable to the Receiving Party and appropriate for the Intellectual Property that is subject to disclosure. Confidential Information that is in or has been reduced to tangible or written form will be disclosed in such form to the Receiving Party. Confidential Information that may be disclosed only by visual observation or teaching will be disclosed by demonstrating it or teaching it to technically competent representatives of the Receiving Party. Any meetings or visits at which demonstration or teaching of Confidential Information or Intellectual Property is to occur will be at mutually agreeable times and places. All such disclosures shall remain subject to the confidentiality provisions herein and any other non-disclosure agreement entered into by the Parties.

(d) Unauthorized Access to Confidential Information. In the event any Confidential Information provided to the Receiving Party is accessed by a third party who is not authorized to receive such information under this Agreement, the Receiving Party shall promptly notify the Disclosing Party of the events and circumstances involving such unauthorized access and provide a summary of the Confidential Information that was improperly accessed, the remedial actions it plans to take and will (to the extent legally permitted) reasonably cooperate with the Disclosing Party to regain possession of the Confidential Information and prevent its further unauthorized use or disclosure in breach of this Agreement.

6. Intellectual Property Ownership.

(a) Provider IP. Customer acknowledges that, as between Customer and Provider, Provider owns and shall retain all right, title, and interest, including all Intellectual Property rights, in and to the Provider IP. Provider shall retain exclusive ownership to all inventions, improvements, designs, drawings, documentation, plans, schedules, programs, specifications, software, technology, discoveries, its Confidential Information, ideas, and other works of authorship, that are conceived, created, or reduced to practice in connection with the products supplied and services performed by Provider in connection with the Services under this Agreement (collectively “Work Product”) and all related Intellectual Property. To the extent Customer creates, conceives, develops, or reduces to practice any Work Product based on the Services, Documentation, Provider IP, or Provider’s Confidential Information, such Work Product and related Intellectual Property shall be deemed a work made for hire such that Provider is the author and owner, and if not deemed a work made for hire, Customer hereby irrevocably assigns to Provider all such Work Product and related Intellectual Property.

(b) Cooperation. Customer shall, and shall cause its employees or any contractors to, take all appropriate action and execute and deliver all documents necessary or reasonably requested by Provider to effectuate any of the provisions or purposes of Section 6 or otherwise, as may be necessary or useful for Provider to prosecute, register, perfect, record, maintain, enforce or defend its rights in or to any Work Product or any Intellectual Property related to the Services. Customer hereby appoints Provider as Provider’s attorney-in-fact with full irrevocable power and authority to take any such actions and execute any such documents if Customer refuses or otherwise fails, to do so within a period deemed reasonable by Provider.

(c) Customer Data. Provider acknowledges that, as between Provider and Customer, Customer owns all right, title, and interest, including all Intellectual Property, in and to the Customer Data. Customer is responsible for providing all Customer Data and/or information and responsible for the accuracy, quality, integrity and legality of such data and of the means by which Authorized Users access and use the Customer Data. Further, as between Provider and Customer, Customer shall maintain data privacy at a level at least as stringent as Provider. Customer hereby grants to Provider and the i-Tree Cooperative a non-exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, transferable, sublicensable, worldwide license to reproduce, distribute, prepare derivative works, display, perform, transmit, and use the Customer Data (i) to the extent necessary for Provider to provide the Services to Customer; and (ii) to use nonidentifiable

Customer Data for their own business purposes as well as for non-commercial, scientific analyses, the results of which may be published in the aggregate in such a manner that individual trees and their locations are nonidentifiable.

(d) Cyber Incidents. Customer shall take all reasonable and appropriate steps to protect all of its systems used to view, receive, collect or store any of its Customer Data, Confidential Information, and data against all cyber incidents and breaches, including without limitation, ransomware attacks (collectively, “Cyber Incidents”). Upon the occurrence of a Cyber Incident, Customer shall cooperate with Provider in resolving the matter, including without limitation, providing prompt and on-going communication and details regarding the Cyber Incident. Additionally, Customer shall not introduce, permit or cause, directly or indirectly, any computer code, program, or programming device designed to disrupt, modify, delete, damage, deactivate, disable, harm, or otherwise impede the operation of the Services, or any other associated programs, firmware, hardware, computer system, or network (sometimes referred to as “Trojan horses,” “viruses,” or “worms”), or any other similar harmful, malicious, or hidden procedures, routines, or mechanisms that would intentionally cause such Services to cease functioning or to damage or corrupt data, storage media, programs, equipment, or communications

PROVIDER DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, OF SATISFACTORY QUALITY, OF FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE (EVEN IF PROVIDER HAS BEEN INFORMED OF SUCH PURPOSE), OF ACCURACY, AGAINST INFRINGEMENT, AND OF QUIET ENJOYMENT. CUSTOMER ASSUMES ALL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ACCURACY AND SUITABILITY OF THE SERVICES FOR A SPECIFIC APPLICATION OR USE.

(b) Third-Party Services and Products. Customer acknowledges and agrees that (i) Provider has not verified or pre-screened any third-party services and/or products, (ii) Customer is responsible for and assumes all risk arising from its use of any third party service and/or product, and (iii) Provider will not be responsible or liable for the availability or accuracy of such third-party services and/or product or the content, products, or services on or available from such third parties.

8. Indemnification.

10. Term and Termination.

(a) Term. The term of this Agreement begins on the Effective Date and, unless terminated earlier pursuant to this Agreement's express provisions, will continue in effect until the expiration of the subscription term set forth in Exhibit A ending on the pertinent anniversary date of the Effective Date ("Term"). This Agreement will automatically renew for an additional Term absent Customer's advanced written notice indicating that Customer does not wish to renew the Agreement.

(b) Termination. In addition to any other express termination right set forth in this Agreement:

- (i) Provider may terminate this Agreement for convenience, for any reason or no reason, upon ninety (90) days prior written notice to Customer;
- (ii) either Party may terminate this Agreement, effective on written notice to the other Party, if the other Party materially breaches this Agreement, and such breach: (A) is incapable of cure; or (B) being capable of cure, remains uncured thirty (30) days after the non-breaching Party provides the breaching Party with written notice of such breach; or
- (iii) either Party may terminate this Agreement, effective immediately upon written notice to the other Party, if the other Party: (A) becomes insolvent or is generally unable to pay, or fails to pay, its debts as they become due; (B) files or has filed against it, a petition for voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy or otherwise becomes subject, voluntarily or involuntarily, to any proceeding under any domestic or foreign bankruptcy or insolvency law; (C) makes or seeks to make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or (D) applies for or has appointed a receiver, trustee, custodian, or similar agent appointed by order of any court of competent jurisdiction to take charge of or sell any material portion of its property or business.
- (c) Effect of Expiration or Termination. Upon expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, Customer shall immediately discontinue use of the Provider IP and, without limiting Customer's obligations under Section 6, Customer shall delete, destroy, or return all copies of the Provider IP and Provider's Confidential Information.
- (d) Survival. This Section 10(d) and 1, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement. No other provisions of this Agreement survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

11. Miscellaneous.

- (a) Notices. All notices, requests, consents, claims, demands, waivers, and other communications hereunder (each, a "Notice") must be in writing and addressed to the Parties at the addresses set forth on the first page of this Agreement (or to such other address that may be designated by the Party giving Notice from time to time in accordance with this Section). All Notices must be delivered by personal delivery, nationally recognized overnight courier (with all fees pre-paid), facsimile or email (with confirmation of transmission), or certified or registered mail (in each case, return receipt requested, postage pre-paid). Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, a Notice is effective only: (i) upon receipt by the receiving Party; and (ii) if the Party giving the Notice has complied with the requirements of this Section.
- (b) Force Majeure. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, neither party shall be liable or deemed to be in default for any delay or failure in performance hereunder to the extent resulting, directly or indirectly, from acts of God, acts of war, terrorism, or civil insurrection, strikes, walkouts, or other organized labor interruptions, telecommunications or utility interruptions or failures, fire, explosions, floods, pandemic, disease outbreaks, endemics, including without limitation COVID-19, or other natural disasters, any similar cause or any third party beyond the reasonable control of such party, and any delay or failure of the other party to fulfill its obligations hereunder ("Force Majeure Event"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Force Majeure Event shall never excuse the failure to make a payment due under this Agreement, except to the extent that the Force Majeure Event physically interferes with the delivery of the payment. The party whose performance is affected shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the impact of such Force Majeure Event.

(c) Amendment and Modification; Waiver. Provider may modify the Terms and Conditions within this Agreement from time to time. It is Customer's obligation to review the Agreement regularly. Provider will provide notice to Customer of material modifications. No amendment to or modification of this Agreement by Customer is effective unless it is in writing and signed by an authorized representative of each Party. No waiver by any Party of any of the provisions hereof will be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and signed by the Party so waiving. Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, (i) no failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any rights, remedy, power, or privilege arising from this Agreement will operate or be construed as a waiver thereof, and (ii) no single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power, or privilege hereunder will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power, or privilege.

(d) Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability will not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect their original intent as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

(e) Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction. This Agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Ohio without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule that would require or permit the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the State of Ohio. Any legal suit, action, or proceeding arising out of this Agreement or the licenses granted hereunder shall be instituted exclusively in the federal courts of the United States or the courts of the State of Ohio in each case located in the city of Cleveland and County of Cuyahoga, and each Party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts in any such suit, action, or proceeding.

(f) Assignment. Provider may assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations hereunder, in each case whether voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of Customer. However, Customer may not assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations hereunder, in each case whether voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of Provider. Any purported assignment, delegation, or transfer by Customer in violation of this Section 11(f) is void.

(g) Export Regulation. Customer shall comply with all applicable federal laws, regulations, and rules, and complete all required undertakings (including obtaining any necessary export license or other governmental approval), that prohibit or restrict the export or re-export of the Services or any Customer Data outside the US.

(h) Equitable Relief. Each Party acknowledges and agrees that a breach or threatened breach by such Party of any of its obligations under 5 would cause the other Party irreparable harm for which monetary damages would not be an adequate remedy and agrees that, in the event of such breach or threatened breach, the other Party will be entitled to equitable relief, including a restraining order, an injunction, specific performance, and any other relief that may be available from any court, without any requirement to post a bond or other security, or to prove actual damages or that monetary damages are not an adequate remedy. Such remedies are not exclusive and are in addition to all other remedies that may be available at law, in equity, or otherwise.

(i) Binding Effect. This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their successors or permitted assigns.
